The sun may warm the grass to life, The dew, the drouping flower, The aves grow bright and watch the light Of Autumn's opening hour-But words that breathe of tenderness. And smiles we knew are true, Are warmer than the summer time, And brighter than the dew.

It is not much the world can give, With all its subtle art, And gold and gems are not the things To satisfy the heart:

But oh, if those who cluster round The altar and the hearth, Mave gentle words and loving smiles, How beautiful is exith.

Who Owns the Stock?

We believe it was Daniel Webster who, in one of his great stump speeches. entered into some statistics, showing that while the hundreds of operatives owned stock in the Lowell Factories, scarcely a score of capitalists had anything whatevor to do with them! If the profits of these factories then were large, didn't they go the operatives and people? And was there anything which democrats could reasonably object to in that? Such was the argument.

Caleb quirk got up a corporation for the manufacture of soft soap. The capital was $1,000,000 divided in 20,000 shares of fifty dollars each. Of these

Caleb Quirk owned 10,000 Oily Gammon do 5,000 Samuel Snap do 4,000 200 farmers, operatives and poor 'widows' owned one share each. being

20,000 Now this corporation asked the Gov ernment for, and got, such advantages, by way of "protection" from toreign competition, that it brought its "soft soap" to B very profitable market, and made every Messrs. Williams & Lawrence, Quincy; year a dividend of 20 per cent., or $10 on | 1 N Morris, Esq.,

each share. In this state of things, the people naturally complained, and said that the cor poration should sell them soap at a less price and be content with profits less exbitant. Three or feur capitalists were getting rich a together too fast, at the people's expense!

Not at all, says Mr. Gammon, on the stump. Not at all. For every capitalist who has any interest in this concern, there are more than sixty laboring men and farmers who are also interested .-Would you begrudge them the making of a little money?

Would you raise a great ery, because they are benefitted?

All this looks very fair on the surface. But after all, $2,000 only go annually to the peor laborers over whom so loud a shout is raised, and $198,000 go to the coffers of Quirk, Gammon and Snap!-The "poor widow" takes $10 of the plunder, out of which, thus consecrated, Caleb Quirk takes $100,000, and erects therewith a palace on Beanon st. giv-with appropriate honors to posterity. We den't believe that the Caleb Quirks who control the Lewell Cotton Mills will be so successful in the manufacture of "soft soap," as to impose such miserable sophistry as we have above illustrated, successfully upon the people. - Coos Co.

HUDSON BAY COMPANY .-- A letter from Washington says:-- "It has been reported that Mr. Buchanan has declined and their far more extensive claims, in to the United States any of the rights secured to it by the treaty. The principal of these is the right to the free navigation of the Columbia. This looks as if the British Government intend to assert some national rights in that territory. It is not at all unlikely that serious troubles will grow out of the British pretensions in that quarter under the treaty. The idea of giving up the point of an exclusive navi-gation of the Columbia, is no more to beentertained than a proposition to open the Mississippi to the unrestricted commerce of the world."
